

Dear Rinhongii,

We prioritize the privacy of your personal information and are writing to inform you of a recent event.

As a precaution and in line with good security practices, we advise you to change your Superdrug.com password immediately and to do so regularly going forward. There may also be a likelihood of health data being compromised.

For further information, please contact: Superdrug Customer Services

Sincerely,

Peter Macnab CEO, Superdrug

This is a service message.